Diigo

Bookmarks and a whole lot more!

What is it?

- You can create bookmarks with it and share them
- Plus, you can highlight text
- And, you can add notes
- Finally, you can share the updated web page

Share your bookmarks/annotations

- Send by email a bookmark or list (folder) of bookmarks

- Share a link of a bookmark or a list with your updated, highlighted, commented bookmarks

- New! Using a list of your annotated bookmarks, generate "webslides", a "slideshow" of your bookmarks, with a unique link to share it with

How do you use it?

On diigo.com, take the Diigo Tour video to get the latest scoop

Where do you start?

1. Go to diigo.com or diigo.com/tools
2. Click on diigolet
3. Drag the diigolet to your web browser tool bar
4. Sign up for Diigo, and start collecting bookmarks
5. Later-add a Diigo toolbar

How do I?

- Add a bookmark, Add highlighting
- Add sticky notes,
- Use Chrome (web browser) to capture part of a web page, add rectangles/arrows, and save it as an image (Free from Chrome Web Store)

What can you import?

Update: Can export Google bookmarks and import into Diigo

Use Diigo toolbar installed on Internet Explorer/Firefox to import bookmarks

Import from and/or Save bookmarks to delicious bookmarks tool

Ready for more? Educator accounts

- Comfortable with the bookmarklet, toolbar and lists?

  - Try out the educator account and get a teacher console-share with your students